

THE FINANCIAL EXPRESS MUM. 8/APRIL 2008

American Dry Fruit Stores go online

Commodities Bureau

Mumbai, Apr 7

American Dry Fruit Stores, owned by Mumbai-based MH Foods launched 'online stores' last week.

The online stores will not only display the virtual tour of its stores located in Mumbai but will also help both Indians as well as global buyers to select their gifts including dry-fruit boxes, dry fruit sweets, dry fruit chocolates, sugar free mithais, dry fruit cans and milk masala.

Director of MH Foods, Sameer Thakkarsays, "Lot of non-resident Indians (NRIs) sends gifts like dry fruit boxes, sweets, and chocolates to their dear ones either on birthdays or anniversaries." In order to cater to their needs and to make its products available to all, the company has started an online store.

"Once the user select the items and makes the payments through his credit/debit card we will deliver the authentic and quality dry-fruits, mithais within few working days anywhere in India," he added.

The company has made special arrangements with organised courier companies to deliver the consignments at the doorsteps of the buyers.

Indi

Commodities B

New Delhi, Apr 7

The four-day global agro-industry (GAIF) is slated from Tuesday. The theme - 'irpetitiveness and impact' - is being the first time by UN culture organisation (UNIDO) and al fund for development (IFAD) in collaboration with the Ministry of agriculture, food industries and commerce.

About 500 delegates from various countries, including government officials,